Laser Combat is a physical, outdoor, all weather activity, which obviously has inherent hazards, associated with it. Whilst Hatton Laser Combat take all necessary precautions to try and ensure safety of all participants, unfortunately accidents, trips, falls, collisions may occur in consequence. Our activities take place in a field area with uneven & slippery ground, props, mud, and structures etc. in all weathers. Each Participant should familiarize themselves with the hazards and try and minimize these as much as possible by complying with our risk management guidelines, rules of the game, safety briefs, instructions and guidelines. Please ensure you wear suitable clothing and footwear. The management accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any loss or injury resulting from any person's involvement in Laser Combat. Furthermore, it is understood and agreed that Individuals participate at their own risk. I accept that there is a risk of injury when undertaking such activities. I acknowledge and confirm that I have read and understood the Company's Terms and Conditions and Disclaimer and I accept the terms contained therein. In the event of an accident, or loss or damage to any personal effects, I acknowledge that the company will not be liable any direct or indirect loss, damage or injury arising from or in connection with the activities (except for death or personal injury caused by the companies negligence) and I waive all and any claims against the company in this respect.
